

SESSION KICKOFF • 2026-09-10

Paste this to open the next session. Written 2026-09-09 at Stephen's housekeep. Replaces the 09-09 kickoff. Story crafting only; schedule and release stay out of it. One issue at a time, worst first, accept / challenge / answer.

Where we are

Premise v8.1 remains in force. The trusting-forgery premise has now been through two full adversary rounds and two walks:

- vo.3 (09-08): Fable REWORK, GPT REJECT. Ten findings walked and answered 09-09, all accepted.
- vo.4 (09-09): Fable REWORK ("the device itself survives every front"), GPT REWORK (its first non-reject). Nine findings walked and answered 09-09, all accepted. Disposition: four-keys-premise-delta-trusting-forgery-v0.4-disposition-2026-09-09.md.
- vo.5 (09-09, DRAFT): four-keys-premise-delta-trusting-forgery-v0.5-2026-09-09.md. Assembled at housekeep from the accepted rulings. Stephen has not read it as a whole. It carries its own six-front prompt for the third round.

First: Stephen reads vo.5

Before anything goes to an adversary, Stephen reads vo.5 end to end and rules on it as a document (the assembled rulings can grind against each other in ways the one-at-a-time walk cannot see). Points to have his eye on while reading:

1. Section 2, the panel. Violet now shows Brad the panel, last, and he says yours. Teacher's pride is withdrawn. Is the scene where she shows her killer the evidence the scene he wants? It replaces the café as the Day -40 acceleration route.
2. Section 5, Margo. Never engaged by the estate; the sister administers under intestacy with her own people; the arrival is the sister's accountant's question around Day 45 and Margo's "nothing in the books". Is that answer, truthful and narrow, the Margo he wants?
3. Section 5, Day 15. The room's turn now rests on her own sentence "only you four know where the spare lives", kept verbatim in the forgery, plus the two glasses and the man in the lane. That sentence was vo.2's fatal flaw when it stood alone as fear; here it stands beside her clearance as her own contradiction. Read it and decide whether it reads as trust or as fear.
4. Section 6, chapter 7. Now claimed honestly as a suspect turn (the box number places the letter in Brad's hands for fourteen hours), not a forgery turn. Proof at the arrest. Is a suspect turn enough for chapter 7 in a 39-package episode?
5. The ashes. Provisional since 09-08. Two rounds have not dislodged them; the clock stays on file until vo.5 survives.

Then, if he rules it ready: Fable (fresh agent, file path, same instruction as before) and GPT (paste the whole file) on the same frozen text; file both verbatim; disposition; walk.

Standing facts

Spine v1.4 with v1.5 (locker), v1.6 (tin), v1.7 (same night), v1.8 (terminology: cash = the cookie barrel, AU copy "biscuit barrel" flagged; "the tin" = tobacco only). Rulings withdrawn during the walks: teacher's pride (09-08 ruling 7); the probate engagement (v0.4); "the ninth" as a pinned date; "starter list, to show you what I mean". Rulings the walks added to the world regardless of premise (carry to the spine's own list when v8.1 is next touched): no fifth key and the kit to the van; the store as a brick bay with a steel door; rent a year ahead and no next of kin; intestacy and the sister as administrator; Margo not the estate's accountant; the trade's question and the day she shows Brad; the two glasses as the room's fact; the panel in Brad's locker Day 14 to 60. Never name a real chemical for the tin. Never tell Fable spine Parts A to F. No em dashes anywhere.

Parked behind the premise

Both letters and the forgery as prose; Ruby's week-four line; chapter 2 line rulings; chapter 3 prose; the recut open to three readers (two versions, section 10 of v0.5); the two DRAFT banner lines and the Episode Closed summary; the headless EditMode run when the editor is closed (new tests and the leads-bar grouping unverified in play); the economy note.
